SPECIAL PRESENTATION
CED: Renton FilmFrenzy III &
Renton Reporter People’s Choice Award
Economic Development Director Suzanne Dale Estey reported that the City, along with the Renton Marketing Campaign, presented the third annual Renton FilmFrenzy, October 8 through 10. She thanked the competition’s sponsors, and explained that filmmakers were given 50 hours to produce, write, shoot, edit, and submit a film that had to be shot entirely within City limits. She stated that “curveballs” had to be incorporated into the films that included a specific line of dialogue, a specific City location, and something that represents the history or culture of Renton.

Ms. Dale Estey reported that 25 teams entered the competition, and a record 18 competitors finished and submitted their films on time. She noted that the top films were screened at the Curvee Awards Gala held on October 26. She stated that winners were presented awards provided by Uptown Glassworks, and $1,700 in cash prizes were also awarded to competitors. She remarked that all of the films were shown during the following days at the City’s Filmwalk event.

Continuing, Ms. Dale Estey explained that the FilmFrenzy competition is part of the Renton Marketing Campaign’s economic development effort to foster arts and culture in Renton. She stated that new partnerships have been created within local filmmaking networks, and that Renton is negotiating to become a venue for the Seattle International Film Festival.

Ellen Morrison, publisher of the Renton Reporter, presented Andrew White and Richard Brandt the People’s Choice Award for their film, “Transference.” Mr.
White accepted the award and expressed appreciation for the film festival. He encouraged festival organizers to screen all of the submitted films at next year’s Curvee Awards Gala.
Rich Brooks (Seattle), Executive Director of Renton Area Youth & Family Services (RAYS), shared the organization's history and how it has evolved over the past 40 years to include comprehensive services, such as mental health and drug treatment, youth and family support, parenting classes, and youth groups. He explained that middle and high school students work with professional staff for as long as two years to help them stay in school, stay out of the criminal justice system, and to create a positive vision for themselves. Mr. Brooks also remarked that the organization has a program entitled "Healthy Start" that helps young families with newborns. He thanked Council and the Human Services Commission for supporting his organization.

Gary Sampson (Newcastle), Renton Area Youth & Family Services (RAYS) Board member, remarked that he is also a teacher and councilor with the Renton School District. He stated that RAYS provides quality services for students who have experienced very serious difficulties in their lives. He remarked that 90 students in three middle schools and two high schools are currently in the program. He emphasized that the Healthy Start program, where young mothers are visited at home, is a very beneficial program that ultimately saves taxpayers' money. Mr. Sampson praised Council for continuing to support the organization.

Carolyn Parnell (Renton), Renton Area Youth & Family Services (RAYS) Board member, remarked that she has worked with youth for over 30 years. She stated that Spark T.H.I.S. (Truth, Hope, Involvement, Success) is a program that serves middle and high school students with low GPAs, high truancy rates, suspensions, lack of support at home, and/or arrest records. She explained that the program helps these students set goals to remain in school, stay out of trouble, develop a positive self-image, and perform community service. Ms. Parnell thanked Council for their long-time support of RAYS.

Kizzie Funkhauser (Seattle), Catholic Community Services, spoke about the organization's volunteer chore services program. She explained that low-income seniors and adults living with disabilities are paired with volunteers who assist them with light housekeeping duties, transportation and other needs. She reported that 57 individuals have been assisted in Renton in 2010, totaling 2,500 hours of volunteer service. She also noted that a Thanksgiving luncheon will be held this year for individuals who would otherwise be spending the holidays alone. She thanked Council for their continued support.

Ann Merklin, Catholic Community Services, explained that Emergency Assistance Program funds are used to assist low-income families, seniors, and disabled residents with rental and utility bills, motel vouchers, and food and gas vouchers. She reported that 230 residents have been assisted in 2010, and that Renton continues to be their most served City. Ms. Merklin remarked that City funds have prevented families from becoming homeless, and kept utilities from being shut-off. She expressed appreciation for Council's support of the program.

Victoria Goetz (Renton), Chair of the Board of Directors for HealthPoint Community Health Centers, remarked that HealthPoint offers primary medical care, dentistry, naturopathy, and pharmacy to people who are underinsured or uninsured. She stated that the organization provides healthcare to people regardless of their ability to pay in communities throughout King County, and has served the community for 39 years. She remarked that HealthPoint employs 45 Renton residents, and invited Councilmembers to tour their facilities. Ms. Goetz thanked Council for their continued support of the program.

Citizen Comment: Chatterton - Human Services Funding

Gerry Chatterton (Seattle), Education Consultant with Kindering Center of Bellevue, remarked that the goals of the center’s programs are to detect and identify developmental delays and disabilities in young children as early as possible, and to enable teachers in childcare programs to meet the special needs of the children in their care. She explained that program coordinators meet with families, provide access to resources, and make referrals for evaluations and recommendations for early intervention services. She reported that 366 children were seen in 118 childcare programs in 2009, and thanked Council for their support of the organization.

Citizen Comment: Sklanka - Human Services Funding

Ellen Sklanka (Renton), Director of the Boeing Family Center in Renton, shared a story emphasizing the importance of the Kindering Center. She remarked that the center enables childcare facilities to successfully adapt their environment for children with special needs.

Citizen Comment: Howard - Violation of Civil Rights

Joseph Howard (Renton) stated that he is a caregiver for a medical marijuana recipient, and that his civil rights had been violated by the Washington State Patrol. He explained that he was a passenger in a vehicle that was stopped for speeding and the medical marijuana he was transporting was confiscated, even though he had legal documentation allowing him to obtain, transport, repackage, and deliver the marijuana. He stated that he has been treated rudely by nearly every person he has contacted in his efforts to retrieve the marijuana from the State Patrol. Noting that he did not know where else to turn, Mr. Howard asked Council for their help with his situation.

Mayor Law emphasized that the City does not have jurisdictional control over the Washington State Patrol and suggested that Mr. Howard speak to his State legislator. He also suggested drafting a letter to the Chief of the Washington State Patrol requesting a meeting to discuss his case. Councilmember Corman remarked that Mr. Howard tells a compelling story that the State legislators need to hear, and that it may help others in the future. Council President Persson added that he also recommends writing a letter to the Chief of the Washington State Patrol.

Citizen Comment: Reading - Human Services Funding

Michael Reading (Seattle), Director of Crisis Services at the Seattle Crisis Center, remarked that his organization provides three vital services to Renton residents. He explained that the center operates a 2-1-1 Community Information Line, a 24-hour/365-days-a-year Crisis Line, and a teen-link line that provides teen-to-teen emotional support. He stated that 6,293 2-1-1 calls, and over 1,000 Crisis Line calls from Renton residents have so far been handled in 2010, and that there are 180 active volunteers answering the phones.

He pointed out that mental health services took a $25 million cut state-wide, and thanked the Council and the Human Services Commission for supporting his program.
